14. TRAINEESHIPS

Trainees employed under the Traineeship system operated through IOGTA will be paid at the Level 1 rate of pay of Clause 13 WAGE RATES, subject to the application of junior rates. Where the trainee is engaged in the workplace of a host employer who is operating under a certified agreement or other industrial instrument and the terms and conditions of employment applying in the workplace of the host employer are superior to the terms of this agreement then the more favourable conditions shall apply.

15. APPRENTICESHIPS

15.1 Apprentices employed under the apprenticeship system operated through IOGTA will be paid in accordance with the following annual rates of pay:

	% of	Trade rate	1 July 2014	1 July 2015	1 July 2016	1 July 2017
1st year	57%	$34369 p.a.	$35063 p.a.	$36115 p.a.	$37199 p.a.
2nd year	65%	$38820 p.a.	$39985 p.a.	$41184 p.a.	$42420 p.a.
3rd year	75%	$44793 p.a.	$46136 p.a.	$47520 p.a.	$48946 p.a.
4th year	90%	$53751 p.a.	$55364 p.a.	$57024 p.a.	$58735 p.a.

These rates of pay for apprentices are the relevant percentages of the Indian Ocean Territories Administration TO 6.1 rates of pay for 2014 and 2015. For 2016 and 2017 the rates have been increased by 3% per annum.

In addition to the above rates of pay IOGTA shall pay all training and tuition costs: including enrolment and course fees, books, texts and training materials, for an apprentice attending any training including formal trade training under the block release system.

15.2 An adult apprentice is an employee engaged as an apprentice aged 21 years and over. An adult apprentice will be paid at the Level 1 rate or at the rate in accordance with their apprenticeship year, which-ever is higher.

15.3 An apprentice will be paid a district allowance in accordance with Clause 17.

15.4 An apprentice will be entitled to annual leave calculated on the basis of 5.4 weeks annual leave for each completed year of service and pro rata leave for periods of less than 12 months which leave shall be calculated on the basis of completed weeks of service.

15.5 Notwithstanding the above, if an apprentice is engaged for work at a site where specific site allowances and/or rates of pay apply under an enterprise agreement, then IOGTA will ensure that time worked on such a site will be remunerated at rates not less than those applying under the enterprise agreement applying at that site. This includes overtime rates of pay, meal allowances and arrangements for fatigue breaks where overtime is worked.

16. JUNIOR EMPLOYEES

An employee who is less than 21 years of age will be paid the following percentage against their classification level.

20 years	90%
19 years	80%
18 years	70%
17 years and under	61%

17 DISTRICT ALLOWANCE

17.1 Purpose of district allowance

District allowance is paid to employees of IOGTA to compensate for the increased cost of living, climate and isolation associated with living on Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands.

17.2 District allowance entitlement

17.2(a) District allowance is paid to all employees, except casual employees and School Based Trainees.

17.2(b) Full-time employees get the full district allowance. Part-time employees are paid a percentage of the district allowance proportional to the number of ordinary hours they work per fortnight.

17.3 Amount of district allowance

17.3(a) District Allowance

For the term of the agreement rates of district allowance will be:

Without Dependants .	$10845 p.a.
With Dependants .	$21690 p.a.

And shall remain at these rates until a review of the system of payment of District Allowance is completed by the parties to the agreement, the employer, the employees and the union. Any changes agreed by the employer, the employees and the union shall be applied from the date of agreement being reached.

- 17.3(b) District allowance is paid for ordinary hours of work. It is not paid in calculating overtime or other penalty payments.
- 17.3(c) There are two rates of district allowance:
  - 17.3(c)(i) Employees living on Island without dependants;
  - 17.3(c)(ii) Employees living on Island with dependants.
- 17.3(d) Which rate the employee receives will depend on whether or not they have family members living with them who qualify as dependants.
- 17.3(e) An updated District Allowance declaration form is to be completed on an Annual basis to record any possible changes in circumstances.

17.4 Family members who qualify as dependants

- 17.4(a) For the purpose of determining amount of district allowance payable, dependants are the employee's spouse, any children under 21, or parents who:
  - 17.4(a)(i) live with the employee on Christmas Island or Cocos (Keeling) Islands; and
  - 17.4(a)(ii) are earning less than the Federal minimum wage
- 17.4(b) A dependent family member who receives a district allowance (sometimes called Island Allowance) as part of their own employment is not a dependant for the purposes of district allowance. This is the case even if they are earning less than the federal minimum wage.
- 17.4 (c) A dependent family members who receive a pro-rata district allowance from their own employment is a partial dependent for the purposes of this clause. An employee with a partial dependent will be paid the 'without dependants' rate plus the difference between that rate and the amount of district allowance the partial dependant is receiving.
- 17.4(d) Where both spouses work for IOGTA, they are each entitled to receive district allowance at the 'without dependants' rate. Even if there are dependent children or parents living with the employees, neither is entitled to the 'with dependants' rate.

17.5 Federal minimum wage

- 17.5(a) IOGTA uses the Federal minimum wage rate set by Fair Work Australia or the responsible authority as part of the test for dependency. This rate, as varied from time to time, is annual gross income.
- 17.5(b) When working out whether or not a spouse, child or parent of the employee is earning more or less than the national minimum wage, the following types of income are taken into account:
- 17.5(b)(i) salary or wages;
  - 17.5(b)(ii) allowances, pensions or benefits;
  - 17.5(b)(iii) interest from savings;
  - 17.5(b)(iv) dividends from shares;
  - 17.5(b)(v) income from property.
- 17.5 (c) The salaries, allowance or other income of the dependant is assessed at an annualised rate to enable comparison with the national minimum wage. For example, if a dependant starts working, their expected annual salary; or, if a dependant receives a pension, the annual value of that pension.
- 17.5(d) The income of family members is assessed each time that there is change to income. For example, when a family member starts or stops work, or when they start or stop receiving an allowance.

17.6 When the rate of district allowance entitlement can change:

- 17.6(a) The rate of district allowance that is paid to an employee may change if the family circumstances of the employee change. For example:
- 17.6(a)(i) When a child, spouse or parent starts or stops living with the employee;
  - 17.6(a)(ii) When a dependent child, spouse or parent's income exceeds the national minimum wage;
  - 17.6(a)(iii) When a child, spouse or parent becomes a dependant because they have lost their job or other income; or
  - 17.6(a)(iv) When a dependent child, spouse or parent starts to receive a district allowance.

- 17.6(b) For district allowance purposes, a child, spouse or parent is taken to have stopped living with an employee when they no longer reside with the employee or they have taken up residence somewhere else. This is the case even if the principal or 'permanent home' address of the child, spouse or parent remains the same as the employee.
- 17.6(b)(i) As an example, family members going off Island for holidays or for medical treatment are still ordinarily resident with the employee. In this case, the district allowance would not change, as these family members are still eligible dependants.
- 17.6(b)(ii) As another example, - children on the mainland attending year 11 or year 12 schooling have taken up residence elsewhere. A spouse living in a second or temporary home with these children has also stopped living with the employee for the time they are away. In this case the district allowance may change, as the family members living elsewhere are not eligible dependants.
- 17.6(c) Whether the rate of district allowance does change or not will have to be assessed depending on the whole family circumstances. For example, the fact that one child becomes independent or is off Island attending year 11 or 12 school will not change the district allowance if there are other children (or other family members) still living with the employee and dependent on them.
- 17.6(d) An employee is required to inform IOGTA when any family circumstances change, to enable an assessment to be made about whether the rate of allowance should change.

17.7 Employment periods when the district allowance is paid

District allowance is to be paid when:

- 17.7(a) An employee is at work. This includes any period of approved paid leave such as personal leave and paid maternity leave.
- 17.7(b) When an employee is off Island attending conferences, training, or attending to other business on behalf of the employer.
- 17.7(c) When an employee is on annual leave, whether on or off Island.
- 17.7(d) In these cases listed in 17.7(b) and 17.7(c) above, where the employee is off Island the rate of district allowance is the rate paid immediately prior to the employee travelling off Island.

17.8 Employment periods when the district allowance is not payable

District allowance is not paid to an employee when:

- 17.8(a) The employee is on any form of unpaid leave. This includes leave without pay, and unpaid parental leave.
- 17.8(b) The employee is on long service leave and all or part of this leave is taken off Island. However, if the employee is receiving a district allowance for dependants and some or all of these dependants stay on Island during the time the employee is off Island, then the allowance will still be paid.
- 17.8(c) The employee receives payment in lieu of long service leave, annual leave or rostered days off.
- 17.8(d) The employee is paid out accrued entitlements on termination of employment other than fixed term employees who shall be paid District Allowance on termination for accrued entitlements.
- 17.8(e) The employee is on long service leave off island with all dependants.

18 SUPERANNUATION

IOGTA will make superannuation contributions with respect to each employee covered by this Agreement in accordance with the following provisions:

- 18.1 The employer will become a participating employer in the Westscheme and Hostplus superannuation funds and will, at the employee's election, contribute to the employee's chosen fund, the contribution specified in Clause 18.2.

In the event that an employee does not make a choice of fund, the employer shall pay the employee's superannuation contributions to the Westscheme Fund.

- 18.2 The employer will contribute to a Fund, on behalf of each employee a percentage rate of ordinary time earnings: 15% from 1 July 2014 and 16% from 1 July 2015.
- 18.3 "Ordinary time earnings" has the same meaning as that prescribed from time to time by the Australian Taxation Office. Examples could be:
  - 18.3.1 Gross pay for ordinary hours of work
  - 18.3.2 Gross pay for any paid leave such as sick leave, annual leave, Long Service Leave
  - 18.3.3 Gross pay for any all-purpose or wage related allowances

- 18.3.4 Penalties or loadings payable such as casual loading or shift loading
- 18.4 Payments made to employees that are not related to earnings for ordinary hours will be as prescribed from time to time by the Australian Taxation Office. Examples could be:
- 18.4.1 Overtime payments;
  - 18.4.2 Annual leave airfare allowance;
  - 18.4.3 Annual leave loading;
  - 18.4.4 Education allowance;
  - 18.4.5 Reimbursement for spectacles;
  - 18.4.6 Telephone or professional association fees; and
  - 18.4.7 Payments on termination.
- 18.5 Contributions will be forwarded to the appropriate Fund every month by the employer.
- 18.6 Contributions to the Fund will continue to be paid while the employee is absent on paid leave and during absence while the employee is receiving workers' compensation payments and including make-up pay payments.
- 18.7 Where an employee wishes to make voluntary contributions to the Fund, the employee may authorise the employer to deduct from the employee's wages an amount specified by the employee. Contributions deducted under this provision will be forwarded to the Fund by the company at the same time as the company's contributions made under clause 18.2.
- 18.8 An employee may make an agreement with the employer for salary sacrifice.
- 18.8.1 The employee must specify an amount of ordinary time earnings, as defined in clause 18.3 above, by which his or her salary is to be reduced ("the salary sacrifice").
  - 18.8.2 The salary sacrifice will be deducted from the employee's salary and contributed by the employer to the Fund each month.
  - 18.8.3 The employer will continue to calculate the contributions required by clause 18.2 above and/or the Superannuation Guarantee (Administration) Act 1992 on the basis of the employee's ordinary time earnings before the salary sacrifice is deducted.
  - 18.8.4 Salary sacrifice deductions will be made during a period of paid leave and the employee will receive the rate of pay specified under this agreement less the salary sacrifice deduction.
  - 18.8.5 Calculation of salary for the purpose of leave accruals and other payments due on termination of employment shall be calculated on a rate of pay, which includes the salary sacrifice contributions.

18.8.6 The employee may revoke the salary sacrifice agreement or alter the amount to be deducted at any time.

PART 5 - HOURS OF WORK, OVERTIME

19. HOURS OF WORK AND PUBLIC HOLIDAYS

This provision sets out the requirements for the number of hours employees are required to work each week, and the days, and the times within each day, on which employees are required to attend work. These hours are called the ordinary hours of work. #### 19.2 Ordinary hours of work

- 19.2.1 The number of ordinary weekly hours of work for full-time employees, whether permanent, fixed term, temporary or casual, will be 38 hours per week worked on 5 days Monday to Friday for 7.6 hours per day. ### 20.3 Overtime rates

	Full-time & Part-time	Casual (inclusive of 25% casual loading)
20.3.1 Monday to Friday	100.00%	125.00%

For full-time and part-time employees the penalty rate is on top of the ordinary rate of pay for the Public Holiday.

20.4 Other conditions

In calculating overtime rates the following conditions apply:

- 20.4.1 Any higher duty allowance payable will be included in the calculation.
- 20.4.2 Overtime hours are calculated to the nearest fifteen minutes.
- 20.4.3 Where an employee is required to perform overtime duty on a day in which ordinary hours are worked and this duty is not continuous with ordinary hours, or on a day on which ordinary hours are not worked, the employee will be paid a minimum of four hours pay at the prescribed overtime rate. Meal breaks are not counted as breaking the continuity of work between ordinary hours and overtime hours of duty.

20.5 Fatigue break

20.5.1 An employee who works so much overtime that the employee would not have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between the cessation of overtime worked on one day and the commencement of the employee's ordinary time work on the next day shall, subject to the succeeding subclauses, be released after completion of such overtime work until the employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty.

20.5.2 An employee released from duty in accordance with Clause 20.5.1 above shall be released without loss of the employee's ordinary time pay for the ordinary hours occurring during such absence.

20.5.3 If, on the instructions of the employer, an employee resumes or continues work without having had 10 consecutive hours off duty, the employee shall be paid at double time for such time until the employee is released from duty for 10 consecutive hours and the employee shall then be entitled to be absent until the employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of wages for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

20.6 Flexibility - Time off in lieu of authorised overtime

Clause 20 may be varied in the following way.

An employee may request the employer agree that, the employee may take time off in lieu of payment for overtime subject to the following:

20.6.1 Paid time off work in lieu of payment for authorised overtime worked shall be calculated at the rate for which overtime is payable. For example if the rate payable for the overtime worked is one and a half times the hourly rate then the paid time off will be one and a half hours for each hour of overtime worked, or two hours paid time off work for each hour of overtime worked that is payable at double the ordinary hourly rate of pay.

20.6.2 The time in lieu can be taken within one month of the overtime work being performed without operational requirements being affected.

20.6.3 The employer may agree to the request, provided the employee and the Employer genuinely agree to the arrangement, and the employee is better off overall.

20.6.4 The employer must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:

is in writing; and includes the name of the employer and employee; and is signed by the employer and employee and if the employee is under 18 years of age, signed by a parent or guardian of the employee; and includes details of:

the terms of the enterprise agreement that will be varied by the arrangement; and how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms; and how the employee will be better off overall in relation to the terms and conditions of his or her employment as a result of the arrangement; and 20.6.5 The employer must give the employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.

20.6.6 The employer or employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:

by giving no more than 28 days written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or if the employer and employee agree in writing — at any time.

PART 6 - LEAVE

21. ANNUAL LEAVE AND ANNUAL LEAVE LOADING

21.1 Annual leave entitlement

An employee (other than a casual employee) will be entitled to annual leave, calculated at the rate of five weeks and two days for each completed year of service or part thereof. Part-time employees are entitled to pro-rata leave provisions based on their ordinary rate of pay.

21.2 Variation of accrual date or amount of entitlement taken

21.2.1 An employee will have the right to have the commencing and finishing dates of the employee's annual leave coincide with the dates upon which air flights leave and return to the Island and for this purpose may elect:

21.2.1(a) To take a lesser period of leave than that standing to the employee's credit, in which case the balance will be credited to the employee and be available to be taken at a later date, either separately or in conjunction with future leave as the employee desires; or

21.2.1(b) Subject to agreement of the employer, to take a longer period of leave than that standing to the employee's credit and for that purpose may:

21.2.1(b)(i) Utilise up to five days of any future credits with the additional days being debited against future credits;

21.2.1(b)(ii) Take up to five days leave without pay; or 21.2.1(b)(iii) Use a combination of 21.2.1(b)(i) and 21.2.1(b)(ii).

21.2.2 If leave is arranged in accordance with 21.2.1 and the flight on which the employee is expected to return to the Island is cancelled or if the date of the flight is altered after the date the employee commenced leave, the employee will be paid his normal salary for the period between the date of expiry of the employee's leave and the date of departure of the next charter flight.

21.2.3 An employee must take a minimum of 2 weeks annual leave in every year unless a written agreement is made between the employer and the employee.

21.2.4 The employer may require the employee to take 5.4 weeks Annual Leave one year after the entitlement accrued. The maximum Annual Leave an employee can accrue at any point in time is 8.8 weeks.

21.3 Leave and public holidays

Leave granted under this clause will be exclusive of public holidays observed on the Island, which fall within the leave period.

21.4 Payment of leave on termination of employment

21.4.1 An employee on a continuing contract of service on termination will be entitled to payment in lieu of under-utilised annual leave credits, plus pro-rata annual leave in respect of each completed week of service since the date of last accrual.

21.4.2 An employee on a fixed term contract of service, on termination, will be entitled to payment of pro-rata annual leave in respect of each completed week of service for the period of their contract.

21.4.3 Where an employee dies, the employee's dependents will be entitled to receive payment for the annual leave credits.

21.5 Annual leave loading

21.5.1 In addition to payment for annual leave, an employee will be entitled to be paid a loading of 17.5%.

22. ANNUAL LEAVE AIRFARE

22.1 Purpose of annual leave airfare

Annual leave airfares are provided to enable employees and / or their eligible dependants to take all or part of their annual leave off Island. The annual leave airfare entitlement may be paid as an expense reimbursed by the employer or as an allowance paid as income to the employee. It is an entitlement that employees get in relation to an entitlement to annual leave.

22.2 Entitlement to annual leave airfare

22.2.1 An employee (full-time or part-time whether, permanent or fixed term) is entitled to an annual leave airfare. A casual employee or an employee employed under a School Based Traineeship arrangement is not entitled to an annual leave airfare.

22.2.2 IOGTA shall pay each employee one additional airfare for a dependant spouse or for a dependent child. The additional airfare allowance for a dependent child is payable in any circumstance of an annual leave airfare or equivalent allowance not being payable for the dependent child by another employer. A spouse or child ordinarily residing on Christmas Island or the Cocos (Keeling)

Islands but temporarily residing elsewhere for the reason of education, and who is wholly financially dependent on the employee will be considered a dependant for the purpose of airfare allowance entitlement for dependants.

22.2.3 Full-time employees get the full entitlement. Part-time employees get the entitlement on a prorata basis proportional to the number of hours they work each year. Fixed term employees who work less than a year also get the entitlement on a prorata basis proportional to the number of hours they work in the year.

22.2.4 An annual leave airfare entitlement is available when an employee has:

22.2.4(a) In the case of full-time employees, completed twelve months service with IOGTA such that they have accrued five weeks and two days annual leave; or

22.2.4(b) In the case of part-time employees, completed twelve months service with IOGTA such that they have accrued an entitlement to annual leave which is proportional to the full-time entitlement for the time they have worked; and

22.2.4(c) Where an employee works some time in the year on a full-time basis and some time of the year on a part-time basis, they will be treated as part-time employees for the purpose of annual leave airfare accrual in that year.

22.2.4(d) Where a fixed term employee works less than a year, the employee will be entitled to a pro-rata annual leave airfare on completion the term of employment.

22.2.5 An employee may choose the reimbursement system of utilising an entitlement to a leave airfare. If an employee so elects, the employer shall reimburse an employee for all travel expenses incurred to the value of a full return economy airfare between Christmas Island or Cocos (Keeling) Islands and Perth for each leave airfare entitlement and each leave airfare entitlement for a dependant. The total of the value of the entitlements of each employee may be utilised for the purposes of travel by the employee or any eligible dependant and such utilisation is at the discretion of the employee.

22.2.6 An employee may choose the annual leave airfare allowance system of utilising an entitlement to a leave airfare. If an employee so elects, IOGTA will pay an allowance for an annual leave airfare to the value of a full return economy airfare between Christmas Island or Cocos (Keeling) Islands and Perth by the most direct route

(as varied from time to time). The allowance calculation is as follows: Cost of return economy airfare Christmas Island or Cocos (Keeling) Islands to Perth divided by 0.685 (tax) = gross allowance payable to employee. The employer will deduct PAYG tax when the airfare allowance is paid.

23. PERSONAL LEAVE

23.1 Amount of paid personal leave

- 23.1.1 Paid personal leave will be available to an employee except casual employees, when they are absent:
- 23.1.1(a) Due to personal illness or injury (sick leave); or
  - 23.1.1(b) For the purposes of caring for an immediate family member (carer's leave); or
- 23.1.2 An employee will be entitled to sick leave or carer's leave, accrued at the rate of 5.7692% per ordinary hours paid (15 days for each year of service). This accrual does not include bereavement leave
- 23.1.3 Unused personal leave shall accrue from year to year.
- 23.1.4 An employee is entitled to use accumulated personal leave for the purposes of sick leave where the current year's personal leave entitlement has been exhausted and consistent with clause 23.1.5.
- 23.1.5 IOGTA will grant to an employee personal leave without production of a medical certificate or other evidence, to the extent of five days/events in each full year of service, except that no more than three consecutive working days or events may be granted with pay.
- 23.1.6 An employee is entitled to take personal leave on an hourly basis for the purpose of e.g. going to a doctor etc. However the number of events for which this can occur will be limited to five and consistent with clause 23.1.5.
- 23.1.7 The grant of personal leave is conditional upon the production by the employee of a certificate of a medical practitioner or other evidence of the illness acceptable to the employer, after clause 23.1.6 has been exhausted.
- 23.1.8 By agreement with IOGTA, an employee may be entitled to use accumulated personal leave for the purpose of carer's leave where the current year's personal leave has been exhausted, or they may take unpaid leave.

23.1.9 Notification of Personal Leave: An employee shall notify the employer of their inability to attend work within one hour of their usual starting time or as soon as practicable on their first day of absence.

23.2 Immediate family or household

23.2.1 The entitlement to use personal leave for the purposes of carer's or bereavement leave is subject to the person concerned being either:

23.2.1(a) A member of the employee's immediate family; or 23.2.1(b) A member of the employee's household.

23.2.2 The term immediate family includes:

23.2.2(a) A spouse (including a former spouse, a de facto spouse and a former de facto spouse) of the employee. A de facto spouse, in relation to a person, means a person who lives with the first mentioned person as the partner of that person on a bona fide domestic basis; and 23.2.2(b) A child or an adult child (including an adopted child, a step-child or ex-nuptial child), parent, grandparent, grandchild or sibling of the employee or spouse of the employee.

24. BEREAVEMENT LEAVE / AIRFARE

24.1.3 Proof of death/serious illness must be provided to the satisfaction of IOGTA if requested in writing.

24.2 Purpose of bereavement leave airfare

Bereavement leave airfares are provided to enable employees to travel off Island to attend funerals of family members or to attend to family members who are critically ill. The provision of this entitlement recognises the remoteness of Christmas Island and Cocos (Keeling) Islands and the likelihood of employees having close relatives living off the Islands. Bereavement leave airfare is not available to an employee employed on a casual basis.

24.3 Entitlement to bereavement leave airfare

A bereavement leave airfare may be available to an employee in the following circumstances:

24.4 Family member for the purpose of bereavement leave airfare

A family member for the purpose of bereavement leave airfare is more limited than for the purpose of bereavement leave. A family member is either:

- 24.4.1 A spouse of the employee. This includes a de facto spouse of the employee. A de facto spouse means a person who lives with the employee as their partner on a bona fide basis; OR
- 24.4.2 A brother or sister of the employee; OR
- 24.4.3 A parent of either the employee or the employee's spouse; OR
- 24.4.4 A child of the employee. This includes an adopted child, a stepchild, an ex-nuptial child, a foster child, a ward or any other child that the employee or the employee's spouse has guardianship or primary responsibility for.

24.5 Use of airfare by a spouse

- 24.5.1 The employee may request that his/her spouse utilise the airfare entitlement instead in situations where the employee believes that it is appropriate to do so. For example, where it is the employee's spouse's parent who is critically ill or has died.
- 24.5.2 The employee should only be able to transfer this entitlement to his/her spouse where the spouse has no separate entitlement to a bereavement leave airfare through his/her own employment.

24.6 Frequency of use of bereavement leave airfare

- 24.6.1 A bereavement leave airfare is usually only available to an employee once in respect of a particular family member. This applies even if, in the first instance, the use of the airfare was transferred to the employee's spouse.
- 24.6.2 Where an employee is granted a bereavement leave airfare to attend to a family member who is critically ill, then the employee is not entitled to another airfare for the same family member who is critically ill again.
- 24.6.3 Where an employee requests a second airfare in relation to the same family member as the family member in the second instance has died, IOGTA will use its discretion to consider such matters on a case by case basis.

24.7 Bereavement leave airfare costs

- 24.7.1 IOGTA will pay the cost of a return airfare up to the value of a full economy return airfare between Christmas Island or Cocos (Keeling) Islands and Perth (as varied from time to time) irrespective of where the employee travels for the purpose of bereavement leave.
- 24.7.2 An employee can arrange for more than one family member to travel for bereavement or compassionate purposes provided that IOGTA will only pay for air travel up to the maximum value of one return airfare between Christmas Island or Cocos (Keeling) Islands and Perth
- 24.7.3 IOGTA will pay no other costs associated with the travel undertaken by the employee.

25. PARENTAL LEAVE

- 26.2.2 Continuity of service will not be broken by any break in service for a period of one year or less or any period in excess of one year for which the employer has approved unpaid leave. However the period of such break in service will not count as service for the purposes of this clause.
